

The ACADEMIC CLINICIAN:
NEW Academic Position Description
in the Department of Medicine at the University of Toronto

Position Description – Academic Clinician

General Description	Full-time clinical faculty members whose major commitment will be to provide, advance and promote excellence in clinical care in a scholarly manner
Time Distribution	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 70-90% clinical related activities • 10-20% quality improvement and patient safety, teaching, or other scholarly activities • 5-10% administration
Clinical Activities*	Including but not limited to ambulatory, on-call, and in-patient responsibilities as appropriate to their clinical discipline A combination of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In-patient attending to a maximum of 26 weeks per year • Ambulatory ‘urgent care’ and ED diversion activities 1-3 days per week • Overnight and weekend on-call coverage maximum X per month
Educational Activities	They will be responsible for teaching-related activities within the normal administration of care in addition to formal teaching of undergraduate medical students, postgraduate trainees, and CE participants via participation in medical rounds and CE events. They are likely to also engage in inter-professional teaching.
Creative Professional Activities / Research Activities	Expected to role model patient-centred clinical care to learners at all levels in a manner that is aligned with the CanMEDs framework and roles and to participate in quality improvement/patient safety or other scholarly activities.
Administrative	Member of minimum 1 divisional/ departmental/ hospital and/or University of Toronto committee pertaining to clinical care, quality, education, or administration.